- a. (Pnu) Krasnolutski - deals with the PNR Ministry for Machine Construction on all questions concerning export to the Soviet

He indicated, however, that he represented "Mashinoimport", and that he was the Technical Supply expert. He speaks some German. 1/

- b. (Pnu) Churbanov - engineer; age estimated as early 50's; tall;

25X1B

He represented Mashinoimport. Churbanov was especially concerned with fulfillment of deliveries as scheduled, but was also interested in the development of new machines and their initial production.

2. Ministry for Machine Construction technical and production personnel never had an opportunity to deal directly with the Soviet Trade Delegation representatives; negotiations were undertaken concerning production and delivery only in the presence of official representatives of LIA, through whom orders were placed.
3. (Pnu) Chosnakov of the Soviet Trade Delegation died very suddenly of unknown causes in 1951. Chosnakov had worked with Churbanov.
4. Although Krasnolutski did not indicate the location of his office, Ministry personnel were aware of his connection with the Soviet Trade Delegation in Brunnenstrasse. Churbanov was also known to have his office in Brunnenstrasse.
